RE: Updated AVI Fee Policies – Transponder / Driver Access Card Fees, Annual Account Maintenance Fees and Account Opening Fees

Please be advised that the Airport has recently made a few adjustments to the policies related to Transponder/ Driver Access Card Fees, Annual Account Maintenance and Account Opening Fees. The AVI Terms and Conditions agreement has also been revised to reflect the recent changes. You will be required to complete a new AVI Terms and Conditions agreement at the time of final account processing. Below you will find a description of the changes as it relates to the topic and transportation type:

Vehicle Transponder Fees: (all operator types)

The non-refundable Transponder Acquisition fees will be waived for all participants that sign up in our system and fund your accounts by December 31, 2007. Any organization or individual that elects to participate in our system and signs up on or after January 1, 2008 will be subject to those fees. The non-refundable replacement fee of $10.00 due to loss, theft or damage remains in place.

Driver Access Card Fees: (taxi drivers only)

The non-refundable Driver Access Card Acquisition fees will be waived for all participants that sign up in our system and fund your accounts by December 31, 2007. Any organization or individual that elects to participate in our system and signs up on or after January 1, 2008 will be subject to those fees. The non-refundable replacement fee of $10.00 due to loss, theft or damage remains in place.

Account Opening Fees: (all operator types)

Account Opening fees will be waived for all participants that sign up in our system and fund your accounts by December 31, 2007. Any organization or individual that elects to participate in our system and signs up on or after January 1, 2008 will be subject to those fees.

Annual Account Maintenance Fees: (all operator types)

Annual Account Maintenance fees will be assessed for each year on January 1st or on the anniversary date of you account opening which ever is later.
